DETAILED ACTIONElection/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of invention I (claims 1-10) in the reply filed on 04/14/2005 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that what "first and second pairs of pinch rollers" as referred by the examiner? Are they recited in claim 2?, and if so, how is that apparatus "different"? nor the examiner indicated that any extra effort would be required for searching or examining both the apparatus and method claims. This is not found persuasive because the examiner believes as pointed out to the differences between the method and apparatus claims as disclosed in the method claim 2 of "moving the web of film through the first portion comprises passing the web of film between first and second pairs of pinch rollers" is not disclosed in the apparatus claims, which make it obvious that the method could be practiced by different apparatus such as one discloses the claimed pairs of pinch rollers and that would require more search and searching in different areas than the cited apparatus claims.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Art Unit: 3721

Claims 1-3 and 6 directed to the same invention as that of claims 1-3 of U.S. patent 5,771,662 of commonly assigned assignee (Douglas Machine Company). The issue of priority under 35 U.S.C. 102(g) and possibly 35 U.S.C. 102(f) of this single invention must be resolved.

Since the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office normally will not institute an interference between applications or a patent and an application of common ownership (see MPEP § 2302), the assignee is required to state which entity is the prior inventor of the conflicting subject matter. A terminal disclaimer has no effect in this situation since the basis for refusing more than one patent is priority of invention under 35 U.S.C. 102(f) or (g) and not an extension of monopoly.

Failure to comply with this requirement will result in a holding of abandonment of this application.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4, 5, and 7-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
